

TOP FIVE FOR KIDS

Louise Cohen

1 SCIENCE OF SURVIVAL

Using the latest environmental research, this new interactive exhibition challenges visitors to create their own sustainable city of 2050, with new types of food, vehicles, homes and gardens. Science Museum, Exhibition Road, SW7

(www.scienceof.com/survival 0870 8704868), until Nov 2

2 THE DOCTOR WHO EXHIBITION

Props, costumes and monsters from the BBC show. Uses strobe lighting and smoke effects. Earls Court, Warwick Road, SW5 (020-7385 1200), until Sept 19

3 JAMES AND THE GIANT PEACH

Musical stage adaptation of Roald Dahl's tale. Royal & Derngate, Guildhall Road, Northampton (www.royalandederngate.co.uk 01604 624811), until Jun 28

4 POTTED POTTER: THE UNAUTHORISED HARRY EXPERIENCE

Blue Peter's Dan and Jeff tour their condensed stage version of all seven books. The Mumford Theatre, East Road, Cambridge (0845 1962320), Sat; Yvonne Arnaud Theatre, Millbrook, Guildford (www.yvonne-arnaud.co.uk 01483 440000), from Thur, until Jun 21

5 DICKENS UNPLUGGED

This new musical comedy takes audiences through Dickens's classic works. Comedy Theatre, Panton Street, SW1 (www.dickensunplugged.com 0870 0606637), booking until Sept 30

T For more kids' stuff in your area, timesonline.co.uk/families